Interrupting School-to-Prison Pipeline for Black Girls
Crater Lake District
Annual Meeting
September 25, 2021
Guest Speaker: Judy Halverson

Time for Action to Interrupt the School to Prison Pipeline:

Interrupting the School to Prison Pipeline is a United Methodist Women's priority. The school-to-prison pipeline is a term describing how children and youth of color are rerouted by systems and institutions and funneled away from educational success towards the criminal justice system.

Judy will give a brief overview of the book and Mission u study "Pushout: the Criminalization of Black Girls in Schools," followed with actions that we United Methodist Women can take to interrupt this school to prison pipeline.

Bio for Judy Halverson

Social action is a passion for Judy. She served four years as Eastern (Sage District) Mission Coordinator for Social Action in the 1990's. She was honored to represent the Oregon-Idaho Conference at National Seminar in 2007 in Nashville. She has been involved with our United Methodist Women's sponsored Idaho Legislative Advocacy Event for the past twenty-five years. Judy is currently serving as our Oregon-Idaho Conference Mission Coordinator for Social Action.

Judy and her husband Ron live in Boise, attending Hillview United Methodist Church.

Annual Meeting Memorial Service

If you haven't done so yet, please send a list of all of your members who have passed away since September 26 of last year to jaboese@charter.net. Please include the name of your unit as your email won't reflect that information. Please try to get the information to me by September 16, although I will accept it as late as September 24.
