CLERGY:

Flora “Bee” Hall

May 23, 1923 – October 30, 2016

The Reverend Flora “Bee” Hall died October 30, 2016. She is survived by her wife Winifred Thomas and children, Lenore, H. Lark, Scott and April; six grandchildren and four great-grandchildren. Winnie’s children: Paul, Rhoda, Mary, Bruce, Jean, Winnie, Farai and Carol; twenty-seven grandchildren and three great-grandchildren.

Flora Belle Ivie was born in Marlow, Okla., the youngest child of Robert William Ivie and Etta Mae Tudor. After her mother’s death, Bee and her sister, Ida Mae, were raised in a Methodist orphanage in Oklahoma. At 16, she became the foster daughter of Charles and Mable Vawter, her church youth counselors. She graduated from Ardmore High School and Oklahoma City University. In 1944, Bee married fellow student Rev. Myron M. Hall. She raised their four children while participating in Methodist congregations served by her husband in Middle Village, N.Y., and Milton-Freewater, Lake Oswego, The Dalles, and Salem, Ore. They divorced in 1975.

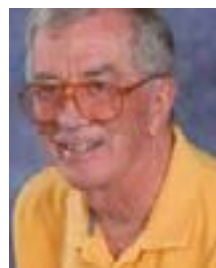

Bee began her professional career with Salem’s first free medical clinic and Migrant Head Start, among other organizations. She was deeply involved in youth ministry, church camping, and organizational development. She then chose to pursue ordained ministry, graduating from Yale Divinity School in 1978. She served United Methodist congregations in Clatskanie, Portland, and Stayton, and retired in 1990.

Bee and Winifred W. Thomas, a retired nurse-midwife and United Methodist Missionary, became life partners in 2006. They married in 2014 and lived at Willamette View Manor.

Philip Eugene Harder

December 2, 1931 - February 24, 2017

The Reverend Philip E. Harder passed away on February 24, 2017. He is survived by his wife Anita Harder; son John; daughter, Kerry; three step-daughters, Tori, Trena and Tiffany; nine grandchildren and five great-grandchildren.

Phil was born in Missouri Valley, Iowa to Chester and Florence Harder. He was the oldest of five children. He joined the Navy and became a medic. He served in Korea during the last years of that war. He served as a Chaplain at Willamette University, Campus Christian Ministry at Southern Oregon State College and a Portland State Campus Minister in the Oregon-Idaho Conference. He retired in 1998.

Phil will be remembered as a gentle, caring man with a big heart. He never met a person to whom he could not relate. His passion for peace and justice lead him to travel to poor and third world countries. This gave him firsthand knowledge when asked to teach seminars and classes at the university and the church. He met his wife Anita at such a meeting. They were married Dec. 20, 1975. After both Phil and Anita retired they were able to travel to much of the United States as well as Latin America and Europe. The house they owned in Seaside, brought them much pleasure especially as their grandchildren were growing up.

Kjell C. Knutsen

July 24, 1928 – November 23, 2016

The Reverend Kjell Knutsen, died November 23, 2016. He is survived by his wife Debbie and son Svend.

Pastor Knutsen served in the Norway Conference; Trinity Conference Malaysia; he also served Emmett/Sweet in the Oregon-Idaho Conference. He retired in 1994.

Eugene Lamb

February 9, 1927 – January 11, 2017

Lt. Col. Chaplain Eugene Lamb, US Army, Retired, died January 11, 2017. He is survived by his wife, Myrtle Lamb, his daughters and sons-in-law: Susan Lamb, Penny Lamb-Atkins and her husband Lamar, Genie Rawles and her husband Scott and Betsy Reynolds and her husband Bob; 6 grandchildren and 7 great grandchildren; and sister, Helen Reynolds.

A native of California, Chaplain Lamb served as both a civilian pastor in Washington, Oregon and Georgia and proudly as a Chaplain in the U.S. Army, retiring with over 20 years of service. He was a veteran of World War II and Vietnam, and was awarded the Bronze Star. He was an avid pilot. Rev. Lamb served at Yakima, Spokane: Lloyd, Vancouver, and Division of Chaplains in the Pacific Northwest Conference; Canby and Division of Chaplains in the Oregon-Idaho Conference; and Norcross: First in the North Georgia Conference. He retired in 1992.

Gary “Gus” Miller

July 20, 1940 – May 28, 2017

The Reverend Gary “Gus” Miller, died May 28, 2017. He is survived by his son, Jonathan Miller; one grandson and one granddaughter.

Born July 20, 1940 in Lebanon, Ohio, he was the son of Ivan R. Miller and Maxine E. Miller. He graduated from London (Ohio) High School in 1958 with many accolades in football, baseball and basketball. Gary attended Asbury College in Wilmore, Ky. where he received a B.A. degree in 1963. He graduated from the Asbury Theological Seminary School in 1967.

Rev. Miller served at Hamersville, Belpre-Rockland, Monroe and Miamitown in the West Ohio Conference; Wendell/ Hagerman, Hermiston and Albany in the Oregon-Idaho Conference; and Omak Riverside in the Pacific Northwest Conference. He retired in 1994. An avid golfer, Gary spent his free time in retirement on the golf course at the London (Ohio) Country Club and National Golf Links in South Charleston.

Paul H. Pike

September 14, 1926 – August 22, 2016

Air Force Chaplain Lt. Col. (Ret.) Paul H. Pike died August 22, 2016. He is survived by his wife June Carol Pike and two daughters; Sarah Striggow and Beth Swanson; five grandchildren and two great grandchildren.

Reverend Pike served Walla Walla and Division of Chaplains in the Pacific NW Conference. He served Mountain Home, Division of Chaplains and as a Chaplain in the United States Air Force in the Oregon-Idaho Conference. He retired in 1978.

Jeanie Yukiko Stoppel

October 19, 1930 – January 23, 2017

The Reverend Jeanie Stoppel, died January 23, 2017. Jeanie was married for over 68 years and had 3 sons. She is survived by her husband, Ernest; 2 sons: Paul and Tracy; and 2 grandchildren: Jeff and Jordan Stoppel.

She was born in Dillon Co., Montana. Jeanie worked for 25 + years for the International Paper Co. at the Vaughan and Gardner plants. After retiring from IP, she became a local pastor in 1985 and then an associate member of the Oregon-Idaho Annual Conference in 1993. She served and touched countless lives in Veneta, Florence, Reedsport, Coquille, Vale, Portland, Salem and Eugene. To anyone who met her, the Lord's love and grace was evident in her and was still being done as retirement did not slow her down. Her greatest joy was comforting people in their time of need, talking to them about their families and sharing her love for her family, especially her grandchildren.

Rev. Stoppel served at the Reedsport, Vale, Cherry Park, Coquille and Eugene: Asbury churches in the Oregon-Idaho Conference. She retired in 2001.

Milo L. Thornberry, Jr.

November 19, 1937 - March 8, 2017

The Reverend Dr. Milo Thornberry passed away on March 8, 2017. He is survived by his wife, Connie Meugniot Thornberry of Bend; his children, Elizabeth Wayne Thornberry Maher; Richard Lancaster Thornberry; Katy Thornberry NcNulty; grandchildren, Sean Milo Maher and Cassidy Wayne Maher; sister, Cynthia Ann Thornberry Richmond and his wife's children: Wendi Lee Steele and Mark Lance Smith; grandchildren, Joshua Coburn Steele and Katie Rochell Smith.

Milo was born in Breckenridge, Texas and grew up on his family's various ranches. He received his pastoral license at the age of 17. Milo received his B.A. in Religion from Texas Wesleyan University in 1959, his Master's of Sacred Theology from Perkins School of Theology at SMU in 1962, and his Doctorate of Sacred Theology from Boston University School of Theology in 1974.

Milo served as a United Methodist Missionary to Taiwan from 1965-1971. He was assigned to teach Church history at Taiwan Theological College and Seminary. He became involved in human rights efforts during the era of Chiang Kai Shek's White Terror (1949-1987). Milo worked with political dissidents, including work with Amnesty International, the American Friends Service Committee, and most notably, included the planning and execution of the successful escape of former political prisoner and democracy activist, Dr. Peng Ming-Min. Milo and his family were deported back to the U.S. in 1971. Fireproof Moth: A Missionary in Taiwan's White Terror was published by Sunbury Press in 2010. In 2016, he was awarded an honorary doctorate degree from the Taiwan Theological College and Seminary.

From 1977-1992, Milo resided in Atlanta, GA, where he served as the Director of Alternatives, a non-profit organization that promoted simple living, and later taught at the Candler School of Theology at Emory University.

In 1992, Milo was appointed to Juneau, AK, as pastor to Aldersgate United Methodist Church; in 1996, First United Methodist Church, Fairbanks, AK. He was appointed to First United Methodist Church in Bend, from 2001 until 2005, when he retired. He came out of retirement in 2007, for a temporary appointment to Chugiak United Methodist Church in Alaska.

Fishing was his favorite pastime. Travel, writing, wood working, photography were his hobbies, and the kinds of music that were his favorite were hymns, country, and opera. Never being one to take himself too seriously, he was quick with a joke, but he would start laughing toward before the punch line. Milo was a kind and loving man for God, his family and friends.

RETIRED LOCAL PASTOR:

Robert Reynolds

December 21, 1925 – June 11, 2016

Retired local pastor Robert Reynolds died June 11, 2016. He is survived by two daughters and two grandchildren.

Pastor Reynolds served Falls City, Dundee, and Grand Ronde churches in the Oregon-Idaho Conference. He retired in 1996.

SPOUSES OF DECEASED CLERGY:

Patsy Rowand Andrews

December 24, 1932– March 23, 2017

Patsy Rowand Andrews, widow of Rev. Stanley E. Andrews, died March 23, 2017. She is survived by daughter, Sharon (Mark) Holzrichter; stepdaughters, Judy (Ron) Lovell of Coos Bay, Oregon, and Ruth (Bob) Andrews-Bryant of Boise, Idaho; eight grandchildren, and ten great-grandchildren, with number eleven on the way.

She was born in Darby, Pennsylvania to Esther Reyner Rowand and Norman William Rowand. Patsy graduated from Ambler High School, and attended Moody Bible Institute, graduating in 1954 with a Christian Education diploma.

Patsy married Joseph E. Kurtright. Their daughter, Sharon May, was born in Geneva, Illinois, and their son, Daniel Scott, was adopted in Junction City, Kansas. Divorced in 1974, Patsy was blessed by marriage to Stanley E. Andrews of Idaho in 1977. After Stan's death in 2009, Patsy moved to Colorado Springs, Colorado near her daughter, Sharon.

Patsy had a sense of being grounded when surrounded by the natural world. She was an avid backpacker, hiking regularly with a group of dear friends. She enjoyed rafting trips, mountain climbing, and cross-country skiing. Leadership in the church camping program was an important part of many summers.

Patsy's faith was primary in her life. She wrote "I experienced the grace of God at an early age. He has given me the newness of each day and the joy of His presence through all of my life. God has been present for me through His Word & Spirit, in the delight of friends, and the community of faith wherever life took me. His presence in His creation has been a source of overwhelming joy and renewal time after time." Proverbs 3:5&6 - "Trust in the Lord with all thine heart, and lean not unto thine own understanding. In all thy ways acknowledge Him and He shall direct your paths."

Dorothy Groves

Memorial Gifts

Any person who contributes the sum of $500 or more to the United Methodist Ministers' Retirement Fund
of the Oregon-Idaho Annual Conference may designate a relative or friend in whose name the gift shall be held as a memorial.

Churches or Sunday Schools contributing a like amount may have the same privilege.

The name thus honored shall appear year by year on the special pages that follow in the Journal.

Legacies and gifts are solicited
from all who would honor a dear one,
and perpetuate his or her name and influence
through the years.
